LETTER DATED 14 MAY 1992 FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

The members of the Security Council have asked me to convey to you their thanks for your first progress report on the United Nations Transitional Authority in Cambodia (UNTAC) (S/23870). They welcome the subsequent announcement on 9 May by the UNTAC Force Commander, General Sanderson, that phase II of the cease-fire arrangements under the United Nations peace-keeping plan for Cambodia will begin on 13 June. The members of the Council consider it vital that UNTAC should have the full cooperation of the parties and their full compliance with the United Nations plan. You may be assured of Council members' firm support in this regard.

(Signed) Peter HOHENFELLNER
